"Foveonics' digital imaging service, DocumentSync, has allowed our office to consolidate hundreds of files and countless sets of plans. It has not only freed up office space, but the user-friendly format, has given us access to the files, plans and specs at the fingertips of each employee in our office. The amount of time saved from physically having to go through these files has been invaluable.

We plan on continuing to work with Foveonics to get our entire Engineering Office paperless."
